

Chaudhary Ranbir Singh University, Jind
(Established by the State Legislature Act 28 of 2014 recognized by UGC Act 1956 U/S 12-B & 2(F))
Directorate of Youth & Cultural Affairs

The following shall be the topics for the Speech Competition:

- 1) Issue of security of women in Indian society.
- 2) Abrogation of Articles 370 & 35 A: its significance for Indian Union
- 3) The Citizenship Amendment Act

The following shall be the topic for Rangoli Competition:

- Beti Bachao, Beti Padhao

The topics for Painting and Photography will be announced on the spot.

There will be no set topic/theme for Poetical Symposium. Participants can recite a self-composed poem or a poem composed by some other poet. The content of the poem should not be obscene or vulgar in any manner.

Director,
DYCA