About the Conference

The Shrimad Bhagavad Gita is an ancient Indian text that became a torch of light for civilizations not only in India but in the entire world and it is read as a religious text, as a literary text and a foundation book for human civilization. Shrimad Bhagavad Gita encompasses many key topics related to the Indian intellectual and spiritual tradition. The Shrimad Bhagavad Gita resolves the perpetual issues faced by humanity through the three frameworks of knowledge, ethics and philosophy:

- The Jnana Yoga (the way of knowledge) based on the Upanishads.
- The Bhakti Yoga (the way of devotion).
- The Karma Yoga (“the way of action” or “the way of works”) action without attachment.

Shrimad Bhagavad Gita contains eighteen chapters and in each of these chapters Lord Shri Krishana has described a specific form of Yoga. Each of these Yoga forms a remedial doctrine and strategy for mankind of all times to deal with their problems and challenges. The eighteen Yoga forms pronounced in Shrimad Bhagavad Gita are; Arjuna's Vishada Yoga, Sankhya Yoga, Karma Yoga, Jnana Yoga, Karma-Sanyasa Yoga, Atma Samyama –Yoga, Jnana-Vijnana Yoga, Aksara-ParaBrahma Yoga, Raja-Vidya-Raja-Guhya Yoga, Vibhuti-Vistara Yoga, Viswarupa-Darsana Yoga, Bhakti Yoga, Ksetra-Ksetrajna Vibhaga Yoga, Gunatraya-Vibhaga Yoga, Purushottama-Prapti Yoga, Daivasura-Sampad-Vibhaga Yoga, Shraddhatraya-Vibhaga Yoga, Moksha-Sanyasa Yoga.

The Yoga form of Viṣhāda Yoga helps humanity to face and overcome the mournful consequences of actions and deeds and the Sankhya Yoga provides the analytical knowledge. Understanding of Karma Yoga provides the ability to deal with the actions and Jnana Karma Sanyasa Yoga is a provision given by Bhagwan Shri Krishana for knowledge and the Disciplines of Action, whereas the Karma Sanyasa Yoga is a remedy for renunciation. Atma Samyama –Yoga is a religion by self-restraint & the practice of meditation, and Jnana Vijnana Yoga is a technique for the realization of divine knowledge. Akṣhara Brahma Yoga helps us to understand the eternity of the God and Raja-Vidya-Raja-Guhyā Yoga deals with sciences. Vibhuti Yoga is an appreciation for the infinite opulence of God and Vishwarupa Darshana Yoga provides the ability to understand the cosmic form of God. Bhakti Yoga is an aid to understand the philosophy of devotion. Kṣhetra Kṣhetrajna Vibhaga Yoga trains us in distinguishing the field and the knower of the field whereas the Guṇa Traya Vibhaga Yoga provides us the understanding about the three modes of material nature. Puruṣhottama Yoga helps us to know the Supreme Divine Personality and Daivasura Sampada Vibhaga Yoga teaches us about discerning the divine and demoniac natures. Understanding of Śhraddhā Traya Vibhāga Yoga helps in discerning the three divisions of Faith and Mokṣha Sanyāsa Yoga gives perfection of renunciation and surrender.

In the present day world people have lost their organic relationship with life, nature, and God as a result of excessive indulgence in the routine life that renders them incapable of higher life. Due to this rift apparently they are under the illusion that they are happy and healthy but the reality is far from the fact because they are living in the domain of false knowledge. There false knowledge and understanding might be giving them deceptive pleasure but not the actual well-being. Accomplishment of worldly attainments have become their ultimate aim, consequently they have lost the capability to judge their physical, mental, emotional, social, cultural and spiritual wellbeing. In the race of worldly attainments, they have lost, not only their well-being and simultaneously they have badly damaged the environment and nature in which they are living. There is urgent need to rescue the Humanity from the present deteriorated state and the ethics and philosophy of Shrimad Bhagavad Gita can have remedial impact on the present crisis of humanity. Understanding of all the eighteen Yoga forms of Shrimad Bhagavad Gita can provide the holistic approach to the mankind to live in peace and solace and also to deal effectively with the challenges and problems of life.
